TAX SEASON 2016/2017

Dear

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our engagement with you and to clarify the nature and extent of the services we will provide. In order to ensure an understanding of our mutual responsibilities, we ask all clients for whom returns are prepared to confirm the following arrangements.

We will prepare your 2016 federal and requested state income tax returns from information which you will furnish to us. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information. We will furnish you with questionnaires and/or worksheets (such as the enclosed tax organizer) to guide you in gathering the necessary information. Your use of such forms will assist in keeping the fee to a minimum.

Our policy is to complete all returns promptly and by their due dates as long as we have received all information needed to complete the returns one month preceding the due date. If we have not received all necessary information by that date, we will request an extension of time to file from the taxing authorities, if available.

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You should retain all the documents, canceled checks and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them.

Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. We will render such accounting and bookkeeping assistance as determined to be necessary for preparation of the income tax returns.

We will use our judgment to resolve questions in your favor where a tax law is unclear if there is a reasonable justification for doing so. Whenever we are aware that a possibly applicable tax law is unclear or that there are conflicting interpretations of the law by authorities (e.g., tax agencies and courts), we will explain the possible positions that may be taken on your return. In accordance with our professional standards, we will follow whatever position you request, as long as it is consistent with the codes, regulations, and interpretations that have been promulgated. If the IRS should later contest the position taken, there may be an assessment of additional tax plus interest and penalties. We assume no liability for any such additional penalties or assessments. In the event, however, that you ask us to take a tax position that in our professional judgment will not meet the applicable laws and standards as promulgated, we reserve the right to stop work and shall not be liable to you for any damages that occur as a result of ceasing to render services.

The law provides various penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability. If you would like information on the amount or the circumstances of these penalties, please contact us. Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination, we will be available upon request to render additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred.

FILE RETENTION POLICY, PAPERLESS OFFICE & PAPERLESS TAX RETURNS:

Our policy is to keep client files for at least four years from the due date of the returns. Our office is a "paperless" office environment. This means that our goal is to minimize the paper that we keep. Accordingly, we are pleased to announce that we can exchange tax returns, documents, and other files with our clientele through our secure file delivery service (our "Client Portal"), located on the client section of our website. Therefore, you may choose to send tax preparation documents and e-file forms to us via this secure paperless delivery service, and similarly, we may also deliver your tax returns to you using the paperless systems.

If you prefer, you may continue to send us paper documents, which we will scan into our computerized files. Unless you indicate otherwise to us, we will either return the paper documents to you or shred them (we intend to make the decision as to which way to proceed on a case by case basis, unless you indicate a preference to us).

We may transmit confidential information that you provide to us to third parties in order to facilitate delivering our services to you. Such transmissions would include, but not limited to, use of an outside processing service to assist in preparing the tax returns. We have secured confidentiality agreements with our service providers to maintain the confidentiality of your information and we will take reasonable precautions to determine that they have appropriate procedures in place to prevent the unauthorized use of confidential information. By your signature below, you consent to having confidential information transmitted to entities outside the firm. Please feel free to inquire if you would like additional information regarding the transmission of confidential information outside the firm.

FEES:

Our fee for these services will be at our standard billing rates plus computer charges and out-of-pocket expenses. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation, and are past due after 30 days. Past due invoices are subject to our standard late fee charges, and can cause the termination of our services at our discretion.

If any dispute arises among the parties, they agree to try first in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation administered by the American Arbitration Association (AAA) under its Rules for Professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes. All unresolved disputes shall then be decided by final and binding arbitration in accordance with the Rules for Professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes of the AAA. Fees charged by any mediators, arbitrators, or the AAA shall be shared equally by all parties. IN AGREEING TO ARBITRATION, WE BOTH ACKNOWLEDGE THAT IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE EACH OF US IS GIVING UP THE RIGHT TO HAVE THE DISPUTE DECIDED IN A COURT OF LAW BEFORE A JUDGE OR JURY AND INSTEAD WE ARE ACCEPTING THE USE OF ARBITRATION FOR RESOLUTION.

If the foregoing fairly sets forth your understanding, please sign the enclosed copy of this letter in the space indicated and return it to our office. However, if there are other tax returns you expect us to prepare, such as gift and/or property, please inform us by noting so at the end of the return copy of this letter.

We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.

Sincerely,

Michael B. Allmon & Associates, LLP

Electronic Filing

Electronic Filing:

Electronic filing is the means by which your return is transmitted directly to the IRS and state tax authorities. The IRS has implemented an electronic filing mandate requiring certain preparers, including this firm, to file all returns that they prepare electronically. Some states also require certain preparers to electronically file state returns prepared. The IRS and some states allow taxpayers to elect not to file their returns electronically.

Do not electronically file the federal return

Do not electronically file the state return(s)

Note: The IRS and some states that require returns to be electronically filed also impose fees and/or penalties for failure to do so. If you checked either of the boxes above, you may be required to sign an "opt-out" form before we can release your returns. As a follow-up we will contact you to discuss these requirements and your ability to "opt-out" of electronic filing.

The IRS requires, and many states allow, the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) in lieu of mailing a signature document when electronically filing.
